

The charity, Justice Reflections, has had another successful year. Issues 11 and 12 completed the fourth series, and Issues 13 and 14 of the fifth series have been published. As with past series, all have contained eight essays on theological matters relating to aspects of justice.

The policy of supplying without charge has proved helpful, because most recipients have responded with a donation. As in the past, almost a third of the distribution list is made up of Third World prison ministry workers who find it difficult to make a contribution. The budget of the charity remains around £10,000, which enables it to remain viable, and the continuing support from our registered subscribers is greatly appreciated.

The website www.justicereflections.org.uk has continued to help many people to become aware of the publication. It also aids communication between editor and potential writers, and our subscribers.

The charity has to continue to seek new subscribers and this is being done through the website and circulating flyers.

During the year the editor and founder of Justice Reflections, the Reverend Canon Alan Duce, died on 29 October 2006. He had a most effective ministry as a prison chaplain, editor of the Prison Service Chaplaincy Journal New Life, and as a founder member of the International Prison Chaplains' Association. The Trustees wish to record their tribute to his hard work and dedication to Justice Reflections, to remember him and his family and commend them to God.

Mr Stephen Land tendered his resignation as Trustee and two new Trustees, Vivian Cain and Keith Jobling, were appointed to replace him and Alan to continue the work of Justice Reflections. The Reverend Terry Nowell, Methodist Minister and sometime colleague of Canon Duce at Lincoln, has been appointed Editor and also a Trustee.

The Trustees wish to record their thanks to the help given by volunteers in Lincoln - among whom are Matilda Moyo and Sharon Morell. The Trustees would also like to record particular thanks to John Tyror who has been responsible for the printing of Justice Reflections and New Life at Leyhill Prison Print Shop and wish him well in his retirement.

Philippa B Duce
Chairman of the Trustees

The Reverend Terry Nowell
Editor and Trustee

Lincoln June 2007