JUSTICE REFLECTIONS ANNUAL REPORT 2008

The charity, Justice Reflections, has had another successful year. Issues 14 and 15 completed the fourth series, and Issues 16 and 17 of the sixth series have been published. As with past series, all have contained eight essays on theological matters relating to aspects of justice.

The policy of supplying without charge has proved helpful, because most recipients have responded with a donation. As in the past, almost a third of the distribution list is made up of Third World prison ministry workers who find it difficult to make a contribution. The budget of the charity remains around £10,000, which enables it to remain viable, and the continuing support from our registered subscribers is greatly appreciated. We may face significantly higher printing costs in 2008/09 that will force us to review our charges further.

The website www.justicereflections.org.uk has continued to help many people to become aware of the publication. It also aids communication between editor and potential writers, and our subscribers.

The charity has to continue to seek new subscribers and this is being done through the website and circulating flyers.

The Trustees wish to record their thanks to the help given by volunteers in Lincoln - Keith Jobling & Vivian Cain.

We look forward to another year of sharing thinking on restorative aspects of justice, and theological insights in to moral and pastoral issues relating to justice matters.
